

Joe DeNone, Entertainer for the American Italian Federation Convention
Sunday Brunch April 14, 2013.

Joe DeNone

Graduated from Geneva College with a degree in Theatre Arts after playing quarterback on the football team for three years. He did his Graduate School Studies at Los Angeles College in Acting and Directing. Joe has appeared in numerous stage productions in Pennsylvania, California, Louisiana, Mississippi, Florida, and Arkansas. He married and moved to New Orleans where he continued to be a school teacher and musician. At the present time, Joe is singing with “Doc Holidays Big Band”, and a smaller dance band called the “Prime Time Players”.

Joe has performed his ONE-MAN SHOW – “A Heavenly Swinging Trip Down Memory Lane” – singing in the style of four of his favorite Italian singers – Dean Martin, Frank Sinatra, Bobby Darin and Louie Prima bringing back the Great Italian legends of the past. This “Dream Fantasy” becomes a reality when these Great Legendary Italian Performers come back to sing their “Big Hits” one more time. By using “Big Band” track arrangements, changing jackets, and singing in the style of these stars, Joe creates an atmosphere of pure nostalgia. Dino, singing his great Italian Hits, Frank and Bobby swinging like nobody else, and that “Wild Man of Song” Louie Prima, bringing the house down.

Mr. DeNone has performed his show at Italian Festivals, Political Functions, Mardi Gras Balls, Private Parties, Corporate Events, Weddings, Church and School Fund Raisers, etc.
